I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so I will have to make
burrito.

I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so first I will have to get a tortilla.

I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so I will also have to get
peanut butter.

I will also have to get some
jelly.

I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so I will have to get a tool to spread the
peanut butter and jelly.

I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so first I will use my tool
to spread on the jelly.

I will also use my tool to spread on the
peanut butter.

I like to mix the
peanut butter and jelly,
so I use my tool to mix
them together.

I want
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito,
so I will roll the
tortilla with the
inside.

Now I have
burrito.

Now I need to eat my
burrito.

I will put my
burrito
on a plate.

I need to eat my
burrito,
so I take one, two, three, four, ...

...five bites.

No more
burrito.

I am a little sad.

Can I have one?

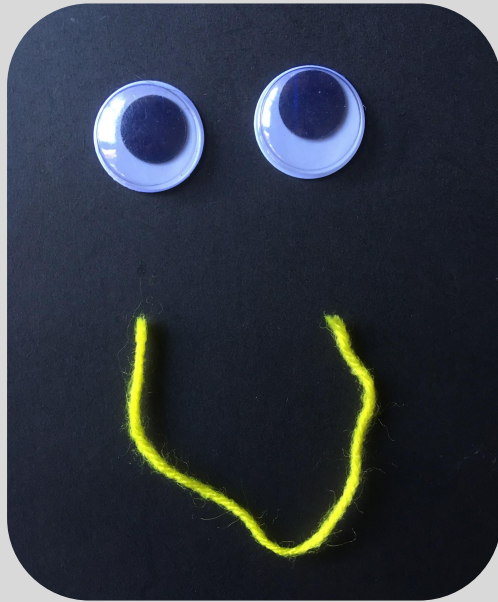

My friend Rock wants
burrito,
too.

Rock wants
burrito, too.

I will have to make Rock's
burrito.

I will make
a peanut butter and jelly
burrito for Rock
because

Rock is my friend.

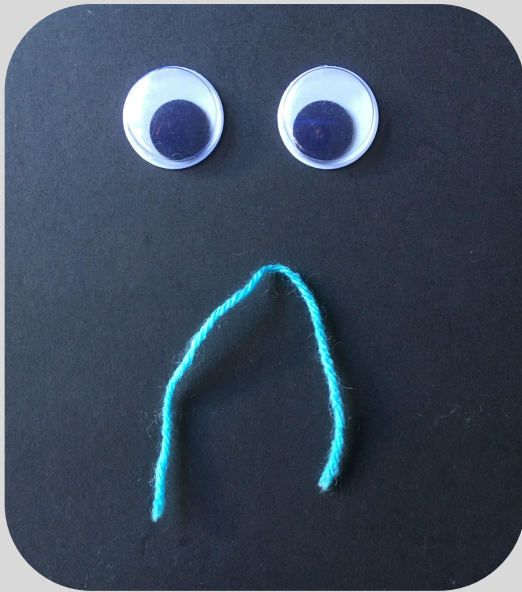

My friend Rock wants
burrito,
so it is time to

Rock and Roll!

First I will have to get a tortilla.

Now don't be sad.
You can make
burrito, too!

But only if you want.
