I Like Stuff

Dear Readers,

Thank you for reading Book 1 of The Stuff Trilogy. I hope you like my book and you now want to write your own version. Think of a new title, think of new stuff, and create a new masterpiece.

I have shared some of the things that I like such as pens and rocks, but I also have included many other things I like that you may not have noticed the first time you read my book.

You see, I also like to hide stuff in my books. I like to hide numbers, patterns, things that are the same, things that are different, and most importantly, things that make you ask interesting questions.

Do you think you can spot all of the things that I like?

Sincerely,

Greybeard
